QUIZ STATIONS
& CONTESTS

Every day you rely on what you know — what you've been taught, read, or learned on the job.

SSPC would like to invite you to attend a unique event to put your knowledge to the test; discover some "tricks of the trade"; find out some do's & don'ts; and find out if you are more, or less, of an "expert" than you think.

And above all, we want to have a really fun time learning that painting is more than a brush & a pot.

Applying industrial coatings depends as much on what you know about the surface and conditions as the actual coating product.
